ONLY IN MEMORY!

Will the Silver Agitation of 1896 Long Exist.

SHIAWASSEE COUNTY MORE FIRMLY ESTABLISHED ON THE SIDE OF HONOR!

Michigan Rolls up a Republican Majority of 60,000 on a Democratic Day.

LOCAL QUARRELS AND PERSONAL UNPOPULARITY

Make Counties and Cities Badly Split!

The result of Monday's election is highly gratifying to THE TIMES and to the republican party in general. The magnificent endorsement of that brave soldier, honorable and honest gentleman and peerless Judge, Charles D. Long, against the opposition of the governor of the state, who is supposed to be a member of the same party, is a cause for rejoicing and continued. The taking of a personal dissatisfaction at a unanimous decision of the supreme court into an election and making an attempt to defeat a good official because of it, has received a stinging rebuke. The election of the regents was, of course, conceded. The republican candidates were able and efficient men, true to their principles and not mere office seekers.

The election of O. L. Bristol is the opinion of the people on the school commission office and is a warning to any who would in any measure cripple or break down our most complete and moderately expensive school system. It is a clear expression that a man must show his loyalty to a party by voting and working with it for some time before seeking or accepting a nomination.

The election of Maybury as mayor of Detroit is pleasing to us from the fact that it punishes, in feelings at least, the Detroit ring and is a fair sample of the result of ring rule.

The defeat of Otto L. Sprague is the result of the nomination of E. P. Byerly for justice, for while personally Mr. Byerly is a popular and honorable gentleman and a good justice, the republicans felt that the place should have been given to Mr. Ash, a life-long republican and a good worker, and, becoming disgusted with his having been forced upon the ticket and unjustly blaming Mr. Sprague for it, he suffered the loss of many times the number of votes to have elected him. While we believe Mr. Byerly intends to work with and for the republican party the idea prevailed that he should have served an apprenticeship with the party before being put up and slaughtered as he was. His nomination came not so much at his own seeking as at the urging of a few of his friends. He has been a most excellent justice and one peculiar turn in political affairs has resulted in the loss of two good officials to the city.

The republicans secured practically everything else, the election of C. A. Baldwin, C. J. Shaw and S. Z. Watson being the result of personal popularity and in Mr. Baldwin's case the result of a raise in assessments that his predecessor thought would be general over the city.

The election in the county is an indication of the tide that will flow to the republican party in the next few years. The majority is more than double that of last fall. The election of four candidates in Venice for the first time in 31 years is a good indication of the feeling. Even New Haven which had been counted, without an exception, as a silver township gives a republican majority, and Burns—"the birthplace of free silver," as it is fondly called—gives less than a score for silver and elects two staunch and most constant republican workers to township offices.

The result in detail is as follows:

There were two tickets in the field, "Progressive" and "Citizens," and the former ticket was elected. The fight was over the proposition of bonding the city for an electric light plant, and in the make-up of the tickets politics was not considered.

Nearly Ninety-one Years Old.
E. B. Halstead, of Owosso township, who died last week, was one of the oldest men in the county having been born in New York in 1806. He had been married for sixty-seven years and his wife, five sons and three daughters survive him. Thirteen children had been born to the couple. Fifty-one years of the family life had been spent in Owosso township. Five of nine sons were in the rebellion, two of whom were killed at Fair Oaks, Va. It is seldom that there is such a family history as this and this county is highly honored by their record of Christian fidelity and real American home life.
